lashing out

Lash-deprived New Yorkers can now get the lush lashes they covet with the opening of The Lash Loft (New York City). In addition to eyelash extensions, the spa also offers eyebrow shaping, waxing, and permanent makeup. To help clients achieve the look they want, expert technicians begin each session with a consultation to discuss the lash type, thickness, curl, and shape that best suits the individual's eyes. Whether it's an understated, natural look or a glammed-out style, a visit to this lash mecca will definitely draw attention to the windows to the soul.—H.M.
